

The Intelligencer.

Office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

Are the burglars swarming on us with intent to rob?

Is Russia will stop outside the limits of London something will be left.

Gail Hamilton, in her characteristic style, lets go at prohibition politics.

Vilas says wiggle-waggle. Cleveland says, Yes, our watchword is Reform.

Is the new version hell has been very much toned down. This is good news for loggers.

The West Virginia Wool Growers' Association meets in this city next Saturday. A full attendance is desired.

Extra banks can't get rid of their surplus. Have they thought of asking Secretary Manning to figure on it?

What's the use of England building a powerful navy and maintaining a great standing army? Her defeat are on the bloody field of diplomacy.

Benches admits that for fifty years he has been under the influence of the doctrine of evolution. This explains it all. Why didn't he say so before?

We are very glad that we haven't been elected a president, for in that case Mr. Vilas would now proceed to suppress the newspaper as "an offensive partisan."

Gov. Foster says he hasn't his eye on the United States Senate, the place being well filled by John Sherman. Foster isn't the worst shod in the Ohio basket.

Virginia Republicans are going to present a solid front to the enemy. There is no disagreement between Senator Mahone and Governor Cameron out of which the Bourbons can get any comfort.

Since the Vilas confidential circular hasn't driven off the Mugwumps, perhaps the administration can think of something that will turn their strong stomachs. They don't as much as show a respectable case of nerves.

Mr. Lowell brings home a royal tear shed by the Queen upon the lacrymose occasion of his leave-taking. It will be erected in Boston harbor if New York can be induced to provide a pedestal for the priceless trophy.

Francis Murphy's great work in Pittsburg continues without abatement. He drew in a hundred and fifty signers last Sunday night. He will probably take a vacation through July and August and return to Pittsburg for the fall and winter campaign. Murphy is not waiting for constitutional amendments.

It seems—We demand an inch of Afghan territory.

England—With pleasure.

Russia—By the lions of the Great Czar Peter we demand an inch.

England—There is no use of blustering, you know. Are we not on the giving hand? "Ask and ye shall receive."

Senator Blackburn has informed the President that he shall hold himself free to oppose nominations which impress him unfavorably. It might have fared better with the President if he had allowed the Senator to depart in peace with his commission. The President can't afford to fall out with many Democratic Senators.

Secret on the Picturesque B. & O.—"Hello! Jones, goin' east?" "Hello!—Betcher life!" "Business or pleasure?" "Haven't you read Vilas' confidential circular? By the way—'aven't time to get left." "The train goes home to throw a shirt into his grip sack and catch the east-bound freight."

Preachers do not expect so great a sale for the revised Bible as there was for the revised New Testament, but "there are sixty thousand clergymen who have got to have it, and probably as many Sunday school teachers." There will be six editions and twenty-three styles of binding, and the price will range from one dollar to $2.50. Copies will be ready for delivery on Thursday of this week.

Some of our esteemed Republican exchanges are saying some things which they will have to take back when the Republican party takes Washington again—say about four years hence. They are climbing the President's office and seem to be getting a good ready on to appoint them in large lots.

As we understand the situation the President is under criticism, not because he is turning out Republicans and turning in Democrats, but because he pre-empted a civil service reformer that was going to apply the civil service reform idea to the whole service. The President is not enough for him. He was going to lift the whole thing out of the mire of partisan politics and place it on the ideal plane of Mr. George William Curtis. He was going to show that Democrats have a nobler conception than Republicans of the proper conduct of the public business. On this pledge he got votes which otherwise he never could have received. Now he is making room for his partisans by the simplest of pretexts—turning men out because they are Republicans and turning others in because they are Democrats. The striking contrast between the pledge and the performance lays the President wide open to hostile criticism. This is the ground to plant the criticism on, for this is where it belongs. A President elected without so dishonest a pledge would not be open to the same criticism.

When, in the language of Mr. Vilas, "our friends" elect a President, they will want to see something for it, and our private opinion is that they will not be disappointed. Therefore it is not wise to be involved in advance with pharisaical stuff which we don't mean and which will make us uncomfortable when the penny begins hailing it back.

COUNT CORRECT.

THE REPUBLICAN STEWARDSHIP

Of the Cash of the Country Entirely Satisfactory to the Special Examining Committee, in Spite of a Paltry Difference of Thirteen Cents in One Account.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.—The committee appointed to examine the assets and books of the United States Treasurer at the close of business April 30, has made its report to the Secretary of the Treasury. It shows a complete verification of the books and accounts of the late Treasurer, Mr. Wyman. The report says, however, that the verification of the correctness of the balances reported to the credit of the public disbursing officers was not as complete as the committee would prefer. They consider that the fact that the only satisfactory test of the correctness of an account of this kind is a statement to be deposited to that effect by the auditor, this verification of the accounts were written up to April 30th and sent to the auditor for verification. An excess of 13 cents was found in the balance due from the Treasurer, as the finding of the committee of the balance of the accounts settled by the accounting officers of the Treasury.

Feed Douglas' Pew.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.—Dr. Sanderland's church, where the President attends, is usually crowded. Standing room in the aisles, even, is at a premium. When, recently, the pew in front of that occupied by the President became vacant, there was naturally anxious anxiety on the part of several prominent members of the church to secure this sitting. Yesterday morning the congregation was a good deal excited over the discovery that Frederick Douglass, Recorder of Deeds of the District, and his white wife, were occupants of the coveted sitting, and it was then made public for the first time that they had rented this pew. After the services many members of the congregation met to discuss the incident, and there was considerable show of feeling. The matter is exciting much attention, and members are annoyed over the fact that Dr. Sanderland, after service, greeted Mr. Douglass with apparent cordiality.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.—The President appointed twenty-six postmasters to-day. All were appointed to vacancies occasioned by the resignation of the incumbents, or where the commissions expired, with the exception of the Postmaster at Tama City, Iowa, who was suspended on the report of an inspector, showing a shortage in his accounts, and the Postmaster of Marion Court House, S. C., who was suspended for incompetency.

SIX THOUSAND SHORT.

The City Treasurer of Springfield, Ill., Reported to His Cash.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., May 18.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned here by the circulation of a report that City Treasurer Presto Wright was a defaulter. Wright has held the office of City Treasurer for the past five years continuously. At the last election he was not a candidate, and George Gaston, the Democratic candidate, was elected. It was claimed that Gaston was insolvent, as he had not lived in the city a year, and Wright refused to turn over the books and funds. The Council decided Gaston eligible, and ordered Wright to turn over the office and appurtenances. Five different days were designated by Wright for the transfer, but he always failed to materialize, and this delay gave rise to the suspicion that he was a defaulter. An investigation of the Comptroller's bank account was found to be about $2,000 short.

His business, ex-Governor Palmer, General John A. McKiernan and J. C. Lamb were named, and Wright was ordered to meet them yesterday. This he agreed to do, but has not yet been seen by them or their attorney, who were hunting them all afternoon. Wright, who has always been popular, was a Democrat, and was appointed to the Springfield postoffice by President Lincoln. It was alleged that when he left that office he was a defaulter to the amount of about $2,000.

NEW ORLEANS EXPOSITION.

To Be Continued as a Permanent Fair—The Railroad Interest.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Mr. George M. Pullman was last night in receipt of a telegram from Superintendent Jeffery, of the Illinois Central Railroad, dated New Orleans. It stated that the different roads and car companies reaching New Orleans, where interested in the reopening of the New Orleans Exposition next year, are to subscribe $500,000 to further that object, and he asked for an immediate response from Mr. Pullman, so that he might know what amount they can depend on from the Pullman Company. Mr. Pullman says his company will do its utmost to aid the enterprise of the Exposition; that the enterprise is of great service in many ways, and that it would be a shame not to reopen it again, now that the buildings and everything are in good shape, and the expense of a temporary insanity, as she had appeared happy and contented in her convent life.

A New Commitment.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 18.—The body of the young woman who jumped from the bridge into the Milwaukee river and was drowned last night, has been identified as Miss Matilda Ayerbeck, aged 25 years, for over twenty years an inmate of the convent of Notre Dame. She came from St. Louis at the time of entering Notre Dame. The only cause that can be attributed for her act is that of temporary insanity, as she had appeared happy and contented in her convent life.

Mo O'Connell's Yacht.

NEW YORK, May 18.—William R. Morris, formerly the bookkeeper of the National Suspender Company, was arraigned to-day on a charge of forgery to the amount of $7,000. He was held in default of $20,000. Morris is a member of the Knickerbocker Club, and owner of the yacht "Gracie." He admitted his guilt.

A University for Women.

CINCINNATI, May 18.—A meeting of the committee of Wesleyan College was held to-day, with Mrs. North of Washington, in the chair, to start a movement to raise a large endowment and make the college a university for women, with technical departments.

Canadian Pacific Finishes.

MONTREAL, May 18.—The announcement was made to-day that the last gap in the Canadian Pacific railroad had been closed, and that the line is continuous to the Columbia river.

Riot's Case.

OTTAWA, May 18.—The Government has not yet considered the case of Riel. The best lawyers here say he will be tried for treason-felony under the treason-felony act of 1869.

ILLINOIS SENATORSHIP.

The Deadlock Will Probably Be Settled To-day, Says the Chicago Chronicle.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 18.—Many of the statesmen and laymen with political aspirations who spent the past week in Springfield, were in Chicago over Sunday. The Democratic quota maintained their confidence as to their ability to elect a Senator, while the Republicans, although they are now in the majority, are not able to define their exact position or their chances of success. The Democrats feel encouraged by their fight of Thursday night, and are of the opinion that if Judge Tree receives the full party vote on Tuesday he will be elected. He is now regarded as a very formidable candidate, and under the caucus agreement he is entitled to one more full party vote. He cannot be elected if he is not elected without the vote of the other caucus nominees, as they come in their order, will be given as hearty a support as is given to Judge Tree.

But the Republicans are worried over the attitude of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. Fawcett, but not without cause. Neither of these gentlemen will ever cast his vote for Logan, if it will elect him. There is a belief among the Republicans that an understanding has been reached between Fawcett and Logan, whereby some of the three will always be found over the fence. It is known that for several days Fawcett has been kept informed by Troxler of the situation at Springfield. Some people say the agreement between these three is in the interest of Charles B. F